These Shoes Make Me Feel So Sexy but They're Too Sexy to Wear Outside

Sara Wigglesworth

2018

These Shoes Make Me Feel So Sexy but They're Too Sexy to Wear Outside is a holographic art-installation using tablets, smartphones, and a reclaimed dollhouse. This work addresses femininity and reclamation of one's own sexuality. The woman personified within the dollhouse is meant to provoke the participant by asking them to question the objectification and ownership of the figure's sexuality, and in turn their own.
